"A SPECIMEN AT LONG BRANCH."—A Long Branch letter in the New York Commercial says:

"The wife of a gentleman at our hotel tells a good story at her husband's expense. It is well understood that they did not live pleasantly together, but evidence of this is rarely seen in public. The other evening, when taking their usual drive—they are both high-spirited and hard to curb, and when their tempers are aroused there is no controlling them—one word brought on another, when the husband said: 'You will drive me mad.'"

"I should call that admirable driving," reported the wife.
"By—!" exclaimed the husband, "if you say another word I will drive down into the sea. There were then near one of the roads, in the vicinity of Gen. Grant's cottage, that leads down to the beach.
"Another word!" screamed the lady.—
"Drive where you please," she added, "into the sea. I can go as deep as you dare to go, any day."

He became furious, took her at her word, and drove the horse and vehicle into the ocean. They began to swim. He held in, looked into her face, and she laughed in his.

"Why do you stop?" she demanded excitedly, exhibiting not the slightest alarm.
"You are a devil!" he exclaimed, turning the horses about, making for the shore with all expedition.

"Pook! pook!" laughed the tormentor.—
"Learn from this that there is no place where you dare to go, where I dare not accompany you."

"Even to—?"
"The only exception," she answered, with a chuckle. "There, my dear, I leave you."

MARK TWAIN ON CAR-PEDDLERS.—And then there were the peddlars. I bought out the poor boy to get rid of him, because I was trying to compose a poem for a young lady's album, and I did not want to be disturbed. But he came right back with a stock of peanuts. I took a few and hurried him away, and he returned with some ice cream candy. I don't like ice cream candy and peanuts together, but I invested at once, because an inspired rhyme had been borne to me, and I wanted to get it down before it slipped my mind. Then the sounder came back to me with tobacco and cigars, and afterward with oranges, imitation ivory baby whistles, fig paste and apples; then he went away and was gone for sometime and I was encouraged to hope the train had run over him. He was only keeping his most malicious outrage to the last. He was getting his literature ready. And from that time forward the degraded youth did nothing but march from one car to the other, and afflict the passengers with specimen copies of the "Red Blood and Thunder" romances on earth.

"The Perjuror's Doom," and "The Desperado's Revenge," were some of his under works, and on their backs were pictures of stabbing affrays and duels, and people shooting other people over precipices, and watching wood cuts of women being rescued from terrible perils of all kind—and they are always women who are so criminally honestly that any right-minded man would take a placid satisfaction of seeing them suffer sudden and violent death. But the peddler boy peddled these atrocious books right along for hours together, and I gave up my poem at last, and devoted all my energies to driving him away, and trying to say things that would make him unhappy.

EGYPT.—A South Carolina officer who has arrived in New York, after considerable service in the army of the Khedive of Egypt, gives this information: "Egypt is the most corrupt country in the world. Men rise to wealth and position by bartering the virtue of their wives, and every official has his price. If you want the Khedive to do anything for you, there is a pasha in the room looking like a whipped dog. If the Khedive says to the pasha 'see that this is done,' the fellow scoops up the dust with his hands and touches his forehead with it, and then says, 'thy will is law; but once he gets on the outside of the door, the pasha straightens out and says, 'dog, how dare you approach the Khedive without my permission; you shall not have anything.' And he will not have the order granted, unless you bribe him, and will prevent you seeing the Khedive again. He states that the slave trade is extensively carried on, not publicly though. You can purchase a Georgian girl of the highest type of beauty for about two thousand dollars, while other slave girls do not bring more than five hundred. These girls are perfectly satisfied with their lot; indeed, they have no idea of any other life."

THE "DEAD SECRET."—In the case of Geneva D. Rockwell alias Minnie French, who shot herself with a pistol in the left breast at 117 West Thirty-third street, New York, the coroner's jury Thursday gave a verdict of suicide. Fidelity Rockwell, sister of the suicide, testified that she came to New York about six weeks ago from Charlotte, N.C., with the intention of going to Long Branch. From the Fifth Avenue Hotel, where they remained a few days, they went to West Thirty-third street. Witness wishing to speak to her sister, went to her room, and found her lying on the bed. Geneva said that she had shot herself in the left breast, but declined to give any reason for the act, saying, "It is a matter between myself and God." These girls are both natives of North Carolina, and noted for their personal beauty and rare accomplishments. The suicide, Minnie, was for many years a resident of this city, adding in that classic precinct known as "Solitude."—N. Y. News.

GREAT SPEED.—The schedule time of the fast line East upon the Pennsylvania Railroad, from Altoona to Harrisburg, is three hours and forty minutes. On the 19th, the Conductor Edward M. Case, left Altoona twenty-three minutes late, and was detained twenty-eight minutes at Huntington and Millin in hot-boxes, thus losing fifty-one minutes of schedule time. The locomotive being in charge of Engineer S. Fee, brought the train safely to Harrisburg, only one minute late, having made up fifty minutes on schedule time, and making the extraordinary run of 132 miles in two hours and fifty minutes, or at the rate of a mile in each one minute and seventeen seconds.—Philadelphia Press.

The symptoms of Liver Complaint are uneasiness and pain in the side. Sometimes the pain is in the shoulder, and is mistaken for rheumatism. Often complaining of weakness, debility and low spirits. THE FOLLOWING WILL BE READ WITH INTEREST:
Under date of April 26th, 1871, Dr. HENRY J. ROGERS, 68 Sharp street, Baltimore, an eminent physician, writes regarding

CRYSTAL DISCOVERY:
"It affords me much pleasure to bear testimony as to the efficacy of your Crystal Discovery. Some years since, while in India, I suffered from a severe fever peculiar to the country. On my recovery, a patch of hair on the left side of my head became perfectly white, without at all affecting the remainder. To remove this unsightly appearance, I had recourse to various preparations, both in Europe and in this country; but they all had one great defect—they dyed the hair black. Now, with your Crystal Discovery, I can get the desired shade—the natural color of my hair being dark brown. I consider your Crystal Discovery the best preparation I know of."
Yours truly, HENRY J. ROGERS.

Now as the fact becomes more patent every day that the various dirty and filthy preparations advertised as Renewers, Restoratives, &c., are but compounds of Sugar of Lead and Sulphur, and therefore should be shunned by all who value their health, it is scarcely a matter of surprise that the demand for NATTANS' CRYSTAL DISCOVERY, admitted to be perfectly harmless, and yet accomplish all, and more, than the poisonous articles claim to do, should have increased so rapidly. It restores the color and growth of the hair positively in a few days; strengthens the roots, makes an excellent dressing, soiling neither clothes nor scalp; but on the contrary it gives the scalp a pure and cleanly look, removing all dandruff and scurf. It is the most economical preparation in use. Put up in large bottles, at one dollar.

DISEASES OF IMPURITUDE.
Weakness of the Back or Limbs, Strictures, Affection of the Kidneys or Bladder, Involuntary Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Languor, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the Heart, Trembling, Dimness of Sight, or Giddiness, Disease of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin, Affections of the Liver, Lungs, Stomach or Bowels—these terrible Disorders arising from Solitary Habits of Youth—secret and solitary practices more fatal to the victims than the songs of the Sirens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes or anticipations, &c.

YOUNG MEN.
Especially, who have become the Victims of Solitary Vice, and dreadful and destructive habits which annually sweep to an untimely grave thousands of young men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entered listening Senates with the thunders of eloquence, or walked to ecstasy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

MARRIAGE.
Married persons, or Young Men contemplating marriage, aware of Physical Weakness (Loss of Procreative Power—Impotency), Nervousness, Solitary Vice, Palpitation, Organic Weakness, &c., as Debility, or any other Disqualifying condition, should rely on the skill of a physician.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS.
Immediately cured and Full Vigor Restored. This distressing Affection—which renders life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgence. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the natural powers are lost, sooner by those fall into improper habits, than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions weakened, Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability, Depression of Spirits, the Heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Debility and Wasting of the Frame, Cough, Consumption Decay and Death.

ACURE WARRANTED IN TWO DAYS.
Relief in Six Hours! No Mercury!
Persons ruined by Ignorant, Trifling Pretenders and their Deadly Poison, should apply immediately.
